

KHRUSHCHEV, ZHUKOV TO ATTEND TALKS

About Town

And Country
By TIMOTHY T.

Letters Urge Lighted Baseball Field for City

LETTER NO. 1: "Dear Tim: Why is Harrisburg the only town of its size in this area without a lighted baseball field?"

"Surely we have enough boys in our city that would like to play baseball at night to warrant having such a park and surely there are enough parents and civic-minded citizens here who would be willing to help secure such a park."

"This would be one means of keeping the children off the streets at night and more working parents would be able to attend the ball games and watch their children participate in a program that would not only teach them fair play but would provide a lot of fun."

"How about it, Tim? Will you help us get the ball rolling on securing a lighted ball field for Harrisburg and its growing boys?"

(Signed) "Bud Sovels"

LETTER NO. 2: "Dear Tim: Wonder why Harrisburg is the only town of any size that doesn't have a lighted ball park for our children? Are our citizens more backward, too tight, or just plain lazy?"

"I think we have the best town in southern Illinois but too many of us wait for the other fellow to do the work. I am willing to do more than my part but we need money and in that respect I'm a little short."

"We have a good baseball program now, but we need more adult supervision which could be had at night and for free. With a concession stand and passing the hat each night, I believe we could pay for the bats, balls and light bill."

"Carbondale, Marion, Herrin, Metropolis, Vienna, Norris City, Carli, New Harmony and many other nearby towns have lighted ball fields. Why can't we?"

"Those who are always saying that Harrisburg can never do or have anything can now have a chance to show what can be done."

"We have the best schools, churches and the best people. We have an airport that cost thousands of dollars and how many use it? Our ball park will be used by 300 or 400 boys."

"To you parents of boys, the churches and other organizations. Let us show these other towns that we can do something. We already have pledges totalling approximately $1,000, all but one ranging from $10 to $50."

"The one exception is that the Veterans of Foreign Wars post has agreed to go along for $500 and will see that the grounds will be available for 10 years."

"Loosen your purse strings, folks; and this can be done."

(Signed)
"Charles 'Huck' Gee"

THESE TWO LETTERS speak for themselves. These boys and others already have done a lot of groundwork, as you can see, and are willing to work even harder yet to see that their unselfish goal is reached. But they need a lot of help. Parents of boys who would love the opportunity to partake in such a program and organizations interested in youth work should show a lot of interest—in a financial way.

Col. Scherrer and Family Visit In Shawneetown

Colonel and Mrs. Edward Scherrer and two children are visiting in Shawneetown with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Scherrer and other relatives and friends.

They returned to the United States from Japan June 27 and arrived in Shawneetown just recently, where they will remain to visit until July 25.

Col. Scherrer, a West Point graduate in 1937 and in military chief of staff of the 1st Cavalry Division in Japan, where he served a year, following six months duty in Korea. This was his second tour of duty in the Pacific, first serving in that theater of operation in 1942-43 during World War II.

He also has served in Europe on two occasions, in 1944-45 during World War II and again in 1949-52.

Mrs. Scherrer and the children were with Col. Scherrer during most of his year's tour of duty in Japan.

Col. Scherrer will report to the Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, Pa., Aug. 7. He doesn't know what his assignment will be following completion of his studies at the War College.

Plumber Electrocuted At Carterville

CARTERVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Corliss Franklin, about 30, was electrocuted Wednesday while working beneath a house.

Authorities said Franklin, a plumber, was doing a hole in a floor when a short apparently developed in the drill. Firemen tried more than an hour to revive him.

Compromise On Reserve Plan Before Senate

Defense Department Objects to Delay On Compulsory Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department has strong objections to several features of the compromise military reserve plan approved by the Senate Armed Services committee, it was learned today.

But Senate Republican leaders conceded privately there was little chance of restoring the plan to the administration's original design when the reserve bill comes up for debate in the Senate this afternoon.

Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) predicted quick approval, with little, if any, changes in the bill as reported out Wednesday by the Armed Services committee. Russell said the committee had worked out a bill that is "eminently fair" and a "vast improvement" over the House bill.

The committee bill drastically modifies a key provision in the administration program—compulsory reserve participation by service-men.

The bill strikes a compromise between compulsory and voluntary reserve training. It would require compulsory reserve service only of men entering the armed forces 30 days after enactment of the legislation. The administration had wanted reserve service required of all men in the armed forces since the Korean war.

But under the compromise plan men already in the service would receive a bonus of $200 to $600 if they volunteer for three years duty in combat reserve units of the Army and Marine Corps.

The postponement of the compulsory feature of the administration's plan is one of the points to which the Defense Department objects in the Senate bill. Defense officials have informed key Republican and Democratic senators they are fearful the result would be a two-year delay in the planned buildup of the ready reserves.

Other congressional news:

Red Unit: Ira Henry Freeman, veteran New York Times reporter, told the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee today that a Communist unit existed in the newspaper before World War II. Freeman testified he was a Communist for about a year starting in 1938. He said he joined the party because he thought it might help the American Newspaper Guild (CIO) to organize Times employees. He said he left after about a year because the party seemed "inept and futile" and hampered instead of helped the Guild.

Housing: Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole told a House subcommittee he believes the government should "do everything we can to prevent discrimination" in public housing. He said "dollar has any color in it." It is paid "by whites, Negroes, Mexicans, Indians, and all other groups," he said.

Fire Destroys Building at Galatia

A double garage building which also housed an office at the rear of the residence of James Woodard at Galatia was destroyed by fire early yesterday.

Woodard said the fire was noticed at 5 a. m. by a person who awakened him. Both cars, however, he said, had remained in the driveway overnight.

A set of tires, lawnmower and other articles, however, were destroyed.

Several windows in a sunporch at the rear of his home were cracked by the heat.

Origin of the fire was not known.

Two Illinois Students Win Scholarships In Elks Contest

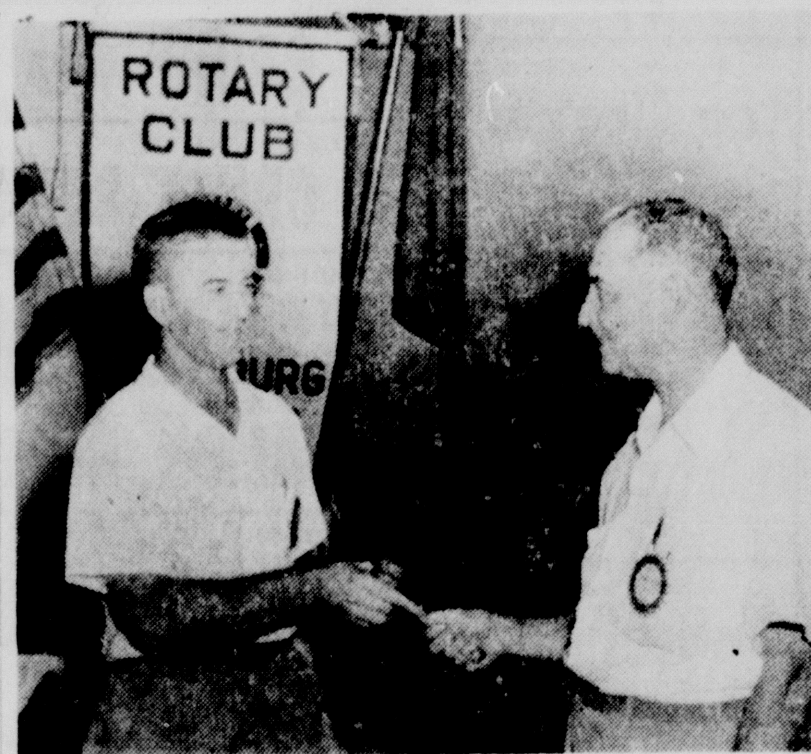

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two Illinois youngsters won scholarships Wednesday in the annual Elks National Foundation most valuable student contest.

Ernest Hanson, 18, of DeKalb, tied for third place and won an $800 scholarship. Sharon Wilson, Springfield, tied for fifth and won a $600 scholarship.

The awards were made on the basis of scholarship, character and citizenship.

Hollywood Friends Offer Prayers for Suzan Ball, Near Death with Lung Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Courageous Suzan Ball, feared dying with cancer of the lungs, fought for her life in a sanitarium today while her film star friends offered hopes and prayers.

The beautiful 22-year-old actress lost her right leg to cancer 18 months ago but refused to abandon her career.

City of Hope Sanitarium revealed Wednesday the malignancy has spread. An official announcement said she was admitted July 5 for "tumors and allied diseases" and is in "serious condition."

But hospital sources revealed further she suffers from cancer of the lungs. Several times in the past week she has been on the brink of death.

Suzan often is in an oxygen tent to help her breathe. Her weight had dropped below 100 pounds. Special nurses watch her around the clock. Actor Richard Long, who married her a year ago following the amputation, stays much of the time by her bedside.

Hollywood stars who knew Suzan at Universal-International Studio were saddened by her illness.

Victor Mature, her co-star in "Chief Crazy Horse," the comeback picture she made on her artificial leg, pointed out, "Suzan has won a lot of battles."

"I can't believe she'll lose this one," the husky actor said. "This girl will make it again."

Tony Curtis described his long-time friend as "a girl everybody respects and likes."

"I'm so shocked by this. I can only say God bless her and take care of her," he said.

June Allyson had tears in her eyes when she said, "She's a wonderful girl. I'd do anything to help her."

An office worker at Universal-International said, "Everybody in the studio is in love with Suzan. She has tremendous stamina. We think she'll pull through."

Suzan looks tired but is as cheerful as the last available figures. He said she has none of the unit's tax rates are 50 cents per $100 property valuation, instead of 40 cents, for grade and high school districts, and 62 cents per $100 valuation for unit districts, instead of 50 cents.

Most Above Minimum Rates

But research director Orville Alexander of the State School Problems Commission said these minimum tax rate hikes would affect only a handful of districts.

He said the last available figures for 1953-54 show none of the unit districts were levying less than 62 cents, only one high school district was levying under 50 cents, and about 400 grade school districts were levying under 50 cents. He said most of these grade school districts were one-room, eight-month schools.

The main bill will allow downstate high school districts to levy up to 65 cents for operating purposes.

A companion bill will permit community unit districts, with referendum, to levy as high as $2 instead of $1.50 per $100 valuation and community unit districts operating junior colleges to go as high as $2.125 instead of $1.675.

Other bills signed by the governor will:

Permit county boards in counties under 25,000 population to levy a tax of four cents per $100 valuation for up to five years to pay for housing of public officers and dentists.

Create a commission with a $10,000 appropriation to study the question of amending the constitution to provide for annual legislative sessions.

Require consolidated school districts to elect seven-member boards hereafter.

Prohibit teachers under contract from quitting within 60 days of a school term beginning.

Designate Nov. 11 as Veterans Day instead of Armistice Day.

Require a polling place to be established in each municipality or town with more than 100 voters.

Fines were paid yesterday by Guy Daniel and L. E. Kent when they pleaded guilty to charges which resulted from a July 2 raid on the Athletic club on East Walnut street, Chief of Police Ross Lane said today.

Daniel was charged with illegal sale of liquor and operating a gambling house. Kent, who was acting as bartender, was charged with illegal sale of liquor.

The fines and costs for both of them totalled $333. Lane said. Arraignment was before Justice of the Peace Vern Joyner with Atty. Lloyd H. Melton representing Daniel and Kent and City Attorney George B. Lee the prosecution.

The raid was engineered by Chief Lane with the assistance of State Police Sergeant Murray Stinson and three state policemen from out of the area who entered the premises in plain clothing. When the trio had sufficient evidence, city and county officers were called in. Fourteen patrons pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and were assessed fines and a quantity of beer and some gambling equipment were trucked away. The beer and equipment are still under confiscation.

Mother, 2 Children Fatally Injured

LITCHFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A mother and two of her children were fatally injured Wednesday when their automobile crashed into the rear of a semi-trailer truck on U. S. 66 southwest of here.

The father of the family and a third child were critically injured.

Susan Duncan, 8, and her sister, Sharon, 4, died shortly after the accident. Their mother, Mrs. Christine Duncan, 29, died several hours later in a hospital.

The father, Raymond, 32, and a son, Dennis Ray, 3, were injured. The Duncans are residents of Centerville.

Donald Kates, 30, Litchfield, driver of the truck, was slightly injured but did not require hospital treatment.

Stratton Signs Financial Aid To School Bill

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton today signed the 1955-57 school financial formula in law, guaranteeing each grade and high school $200 per pupil per year.

The bill will also require public school districts to levy a higher minimum tax to qualify for state aid.

The $200 per pupil level raises the "equalization" rate from the $172 guaranteed for 1953-55.

Stratton has already signed the 202 million dollar appropriation for the state's share of school financing for the next two years. This appropriation is a jump of nearly 60 million dollars from the past two years.

The new school district qualification rates are 50 cents per $100 property valuation, instead of 40 cents, for grade and high school districts, and 62 cents per $100 valuation for unit districts, instead of 50 cents.

Most Above Minimum Rates

But research director Orville Alexander of the State School Problems Commission said these minimum tax rate hikes would affect only a handful of districts.

Truman Urges Shriners to Support the UN

Ex-President Enjoys Quipping With Reporters

CHICAGO (AP)—Former President Truman, in town for the Shriners' convention, enjoyed one of his favorite pastimes Wednesday quipping with reporters.

Sun-tanned and jocular at 71, he paid a surprise visit to the office of Mayor Richard J. Daley and was swamped with questions.

One reporter asked him if he intended to run again for public office. The ex-president guffawed and replied:

"Hell, no."

Asked whether he missed the White House, Mr. Truman joshed:

"Hell, no. I'm glad to be rid of it."

The dapper Democrat, decked out in a white summer suit and white panama hat, joked about his tenure in the White House, but added seriously:

"No man can fill that job. You just have to do the best you can."

Mr. Truman said a president "must be able to laugh at himself."

"A fellow who doesn't have a sense of humor just can't be in the White House," he said.

Mr. Truman said he got a great deal of fun from reading newspaper cartoons—pro and con—while president. About 600 cartoons drawn during his stay in the White House will be housed in the Truman Memorial Library in Independence, Mo., he said.

Urges Support of UN

He said the famous 1948 headline (from the Chicago Tribune) which proclaimed Thomas E. Dewey was elected president also will be in the collection "in a prominent place."

Mr. Truman had a busy day, addressing several gatherings of Shriners, including the 58,000 who turned out at Soldier Field Wednesday night for the spectacular "Shrinersama" show, which included music, fireworks, vaudeville and circus acts.

Talking at the imperial potentate's banquet, Mr. Truman, himself a Shriner, said world peace depends on the United Nations, the President of the United States and the American people.

He called on the Shriners to support the U. N., which he said they could rely on to "prevent the use of atomic weapons."

"If you make up your minds to turn your back on peace," he said, "you may have complete destruction."

Speaking without a prepared text, Mr. Truman said one of the most important points to remember is that the president as the "civilian head of the military forces is the best guarantee we have for peace in the world."

The ex-president said Americans are the "only hope" of the free world.

Four Killed in Crash of B47

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—All four crewmen were killed shortly after midnight today when a B47 Stratofort bomber crashed and burned on takeoff from Barksdale Air Force Base.

Sheriff's deputies from Bossier and Caddo parishes pulled the mangled bodies from the wreckage at 6 a. m. EDT. They had not yet been identified.

The giant bomber plunged into a wooded area near the edge of the Red River and Caddo Parish about 2:20 a. m. EDT, minutes after it took off. Wreckage was strewn over a 5,000 foot wide area.

Lt. Col. John Spalding, 2nd Air Force public information officer, said three officers and an enlisted man were aboard.

Sheriff's deputies searched for two hours before reaching the site of the burning plane in heavy rains. The rain had made it impossible to get heavy crash recovery equipment to the scene.

Individual errors in judgment, lack of proper coordination, ineffective administration procedures, inconsistent application of existing regulations, and excessive delays.

Sen. George H. Bender (R-Ohio) objected in a separate statement that the report failed to state that "not one iota of evidence was revealed to indicate any subversion, collusion or Communist conspiracy" involved in the Army's handling of the case.

The subcommittee report was approved Wednesday by the full Government Operations committee and was filed in the full committee's name. Sen. Thomas E. Martin (R-Iowa) added a separate statement saying he was not a member of the subcommittee and took no part in the report.

The report said Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens "or his superiors... are to be criticized for the delay of almost one year" before releasing the facts in the case of the onetime Army dentist.

The Peress case proved a perennial furor in 1954 when the New York dentist received an honorable discharge from the Army shortly after refusing to tell McCarthy, then chairman of the subcommittee, whether he was a Communist.

McCarthy, locked in combat with the Army during most of the year, made "who promoted Peress?" a battle cry. He demanded that the Army identify the "secret master in the Pentagon... responsible for coddling Communists."

First Stevens and then President Eisenhower declared publicly that the Army had made serious errors in the case but had moved to correct them.

Sudden new interest in Germany was sparked by Moscow's latest statement that it is impossible under present conditions to reunify Germany. The Soviets proposed a step-by-step program to that end after formation of an all-European security organization.

President Eisenhower will take his son, Maj. John S. Eisenhower, to the Big Four meeting in Geneva as a personal aide, the White House announced today.

Mr. Eisenhower's son recently completed a year at the Army staff and command school and recently has been assigned as an infantry training officer at Fort Belvoir, Va., just outside Washington.

Indicate Russia Prepared for Wide Discussions

Keen Interest Expressed in Plans of Zhukov

WASHINGTON (AP)—The powerful Soviet lineup being sent to the Geneva Big Four conference indicated today the Russians will be fully prepared to do business on world problems—if they want to.

Announcement that Communist Party Chief Nikita Khrushchev and Defense Minister Marshal Georgi Zhukov will attend the meeting next week suggested to some diplomats that the Reds might be ready to transact even more business than the United States is prepared to do.

Russians have been talking about a long, detailed conference while this government has planned for a short meeting of about a week on what it regards as "procedural planning"—or steps toward later negotiations.

Keen interest was expressed here in the participation of Zhukov, President Eisenhower's wartime friend.

Mr. Eisenhower has said that if Zhukov did attend the meeting "he and I, at least, would have a chance to talk personally and, I think, to talk over events since 1945 among ourselves and we might just get some item of value out of it."

After Zhukov's appointment as defense minister in February, Mr. Eisenhower said he and the mar-ting developed "a practice of getting together and seeing eye to eye on a number of our local problems in Berlin" after the war.

Meanwhile, diplomatic officials said the Big Three allies will press Russia at Geneva for rapid action on reunification of Germany.

Diplomats said the United States, Britain and France will not be deterred from the German question despite Moscow's indicated strategy to stall on this subject when the Big Four meeting begins next Monday.

The possibility of an East-West tug-of-war on the German question was expected to come under final review at today's White House meeting of President Eisenhower's top-level National Security Council. However, no announcement was anticipated from the top secret session.

The high-level meeting was the last before the President leaves for Geneva Friday night after delivering a nationwide radio-television address on Geneva conference prospects.

Allied Meeting Saturday

Before flying to Europe late Wednesday, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles reflected Allied concern over the German issue. The secretary pointed out in a farewell statement that he would meet Saturday in Paris with representatives of the 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The treaty nations, he said, were "much interested in some of the problems which may come up at Geneva, particularly in relation to the federal republic of Germany, which is now a member of NATO."

Dulles did not mention any other problem slated for Big Four study. His other parting remarks were confined to predictions of Allied unity, a warning that "no great decisions of substance" should be expected, and a hope that Geneva would carry ahead "our unceasing quest for a secure and just peace."

McCarthy, locked in combat with the Army during most of the year, made "who promoted Peress?" a battle cry. He demanded that the Army identify the "secret master in the Pentagon... responsible for coddling Communists."

Peace and Geneva

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

No man who understands the mood and temper of the world's peoples today has any doubt that peace is what they hunger for.
And even if they did not so passionately desire it, the frightful prospect of a nuclear war makes the quest for peace a search for a means of human survival.

All this we in America understand well. We bow to no one in our devotion to this quest. No neutrality, and certainly no Communist, has a superior appreciation of the need for peace.

Those who believe otherwise either do not know America very well, or do not want to.

Because we do seek peace so genuinely, our leading statesmen realize they can never close the door to negotiations with the potential enemy behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains. No matter how much fraud is practiced from Moscow and Peking, we can never assume there will not some day be an earnest offer of peace from those capitals.

The next test of Communist sincerity comes at Geneva on July 18, when leaders of the Big Four powers gather for their "summit" meeting.

The world has been built up to a state of anxious expectancy over this conference. Men longing for peace seemingly will not shake off the idea that the magic of a single meeting of great national leaders can dissolve all their fears and assure peace forever after.

America's statesmen have the difficult task of bringing these yearnings into more realistic focus, without dashing hopes that the conference may provide at least a beginning toward a sincere settlement.

Peace is so heady a wine to some men that they appear to forget that it is not a commodity which should be bought at any price. As the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan so wisely winded world diplomats at San Francisco 10 years ago, what we seek is not simply peace, but peace with justice.

We, in company with our friends, do not have the power now to insure a just peace in Eastern Europe, where satellite peoples who wish to be free are under the Communist yoke.

But at least we can avoid putting a formal stamp of approval on these and other Red conquests.
We cannot at this moment correct these wrongs, but we need not accept them, either.

Furthermore, we do have the power to avoid new injustices as we search for peace. At Geneva
we shall be leading from strength.
Our bargaining position is good.
We need not, we must not yield cherished free ground merely because the clamor for peace is about our ears.

If the Russians honestly want to ease world tensions, we will listen.
And we shall not be averse to striking a bargain that does not compromise freedom in some new quarter.

But such a bargain can have no seal of finality upon it, so long as men are not free who want to be.
We will not counter-sign the conquests of tyrants. Anyone who asks that we do loves neither liberty nor peace but only his own skin.

Carrier Mills Register

Ernest Ammon and his family have just returned from a week at Ridgecrest, N. C., where he attended the radio and television conference and had a part in the worship program. This Baptist conference is highlighted by the leaders of the larger network station personnel. The trends in both fields were discussed and explained.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trivillion, relatives of Mrs. Ernest Ammon from Winter Park, Fla., visited at the Baptist parsonage Monday evening.
The Trivillions are from a pioneer family that trace their history back to England. Also the history includes a direct relation to Dolly Madison, wife of one of the presidents of the United States.

Monday evening, July 11, a group of singers from the First Baptist church of Carrier Mills gave service at the Veterans hospital at Marion. The pastor, Ernest Ammon, preached the sermon entitled
"What the Bible says about Soldiers." The music was directed by Raymond Allen and Mrs.
Charles Johnson was accompanist.

The Carrier Mills park construction received a special boost when the Methodist pastor, Carl Davis, and the Baptist pastor, Ernest Ammon, teamed up together to lay the foundation for two large picnic furnaces near the shelter in the park. The work consisted of digging a form in the ground and adding some wood for the part above the surface. The two ran the concrete mixer and wheeled the mix in wheelbarrows, borrowed for the occasion. The Ministerial Alliance expects to complete the furnaces in the next few days.
They are to be a special contribution to the Lion's Park of Carrier
Mills from the Ministerial Alliance.

Employment Climbs in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD — Non-farm employment in Illinois climbed to 2,984,600 workers in mid-June, the highest since December, 1953, the Department of Labor reported today.

The total May-June increase amounted to 22,200 workers and brought the employment level to 33,000 above June, 1954, Labor Director Roy F. Cummins said.

Manufacturing employment alone increased by 13,000 workers to rise 41,600 above the level a year ago. The total employed in manufacturing in mid-June was 1, 239,000.

Factory earnings matched the increase in employment with workers earning an average of $81.17 a week, $1.98 an hour, and working an average of 41 hours a week in mid-May. These figures represented increases of 69 cents a week, one cent an hour, and one-tenth of an hour a week.

The national figures for May were $76.11 per week, $1.87 an hour and 40.7 hours per week.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Ike Feared City Of Geneva
Was Jinxed; Geneva Has Been Scene Of World's Greatest Tragedies And World's Greatest Hopes; A Different Republican Party Is Backing Ike.
(Ed Note — Drew Pearson has flown to Geneva to cover the Big Four meeting and today writes
his first column on that important forthcoming event.)

GENEVA — Inside fact is that President Eisenhower at first did not want the Big Four talks to be held in Geneva and today writes
his first column on that important
forthcoming event.)

Ike is a bit superstitious, and to him Geneva was too closely identified with the Indo-China conference which his secretary of state ballyhooed as the "world's best hope," but which turned out to be one of this country's most crushing diplomatic defeats. To other diplomats, Geneva is a city which has witnessed some of the world's greatest tragedies and the world's greatest hopes.

It watched the birth of Woodrow Wilson's dream of a bright new and peaceful world.

And it watched Emperor Haile Selassie walk down from the League of Nations' rostrum, after his plea for helpless Ethiopia, a heavy-hearted, beaten man. It heard the silence that followed him, more eloquent than his plea-loquent of the league's inability to challenge the swaggering might of Mussolini.

DOLLAR-DIPLOMACY
It watched the ambassador of Adolf Hitler bluster out of the disarmament sessions when Franklin Roosevelt was making one last attempt to block rearming of Nazi Germany. And it watched Japan and Ambassador Yoshizawa insult the council by keeping it waiting a full hour during the Manchurian crisis and then saunter down the aisle, stogie at jaunty angle, to announce his usual alibi: "I am awaiting instructions from my government."

It also saw William Baldwin Shearer buttonhole newsmen and admirals as a $40,000 lobbyist for Bethlehem Steel, Newport News
Ship and New York Ship to prevent naval disarmament.

It saw American and British oil companies warn the diplomats not to bar oil to Mussolini's navy—the only way to stop his invasion of helpless Ethiopia. And it saw the diplomats bow supinely to that warning. Dollars then were more important than peace.

And it watched the repeated conversations between that old brawler for peace, Aristide Briand, and German delegates in an effort to patch up a partnership between those age-old archenemies, France and Germany.

As these conversations failed, it

days: Mr. and Mrs. Leo DeNeal,
Mr. and Mrs. Earl DeNeal, J. C.
Booten, Sam Booten, Lee DeNeal,
Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop and Hael and Sharon Osman.

Beecher Williams, who has been under treatment at Mayo's clinic for several days, returned to his home here last week.

Word was received here Monday
by Mrs. Lee DeNeal of the critical illness of her aunt, Mrs. Laura Eagleson of Olney.

Pfc. First Class Gordon L. Dowdy, son of Theodore Dowdy, 111E South Feazel, has recently been promoted to the rank of corporal.
He is a member of Battery "B", 89th Airborne Field Artillery Battalion, 11th Airborne Division Fort Campbell, Ky. He is also a qualified parachutist, having completed and graduated from the Jump School at the 11th Airborne Division Airborne School at Fort Campbell, Ky., in March of this year.

also watched the huge mustachios of Aristide Briand droop lower and lower, as the League of Nations more and more sank to the point where it had only the noncontroversial task of preventing opium smuggling.

EISENHOWER IS STRONGER
But there is one big difference between Geneva's failures of the 1920-30's and the position President Eisenhower is in today.

The League of Nations in those days was operating without the United States. It was limping on one crutch, with the other crutch the most powerful nation in the new world, aloof, suspicious, and isolated.

Even when Japan invaded Manchuria in 1931 in the forerunner of a general conquest of China and eventual world war, American isolationists shrank in horror when Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson instructed the American embassy in Geneva, Prentiss Gilbert, to attend the League council merely as an observer.

Herbert Hoover was in the White House then, and so loud were isolationist shrieks from inside the Republican party, that Hoover finally overruled his own secretary of state and withdrew Gilbert as an observer. Charles G. Dawes, former vice president, then ambassador to France and a good Chicago isolationist, acted as an aloof, playboy observer in Paris instead.

It almost broke Stimson's heart,
and later he went to Geneva himself to fight the battle against Japan, the aggressor.

Eisenhower still has his problems inside the Republican party, also with his own administration advisers, as will be described in a subsequent column. But, by and large, the American people are overwhelmingly behind him in this public opinion is concerned, Eisenhower or any other search for permanent peace. As far as American enough at Geneva will play from strength.

NO EASY ROADS
When it comes to any quick and easy roads to peace, however, Ike might well study the Geneva experience of the secretary of war who promoted him from lieutenant colonel to lieutenant general and helped assign him as commander in chief in Europe—the same Henry L. Stimson.

At Geneva during his efforts to head off World War II, Stimson knew that an era was dying. It was dying before men's eyes, right at the conference table—the peace that he and other men had hoped to bring in 1918. He knew it was dying, but he refused to give up.

His room at the Villa Bessinge looked down on an old garden shadered by high trees in which roosted flocks of birds at night. And sometimes when he could not sleep and work dragged, Stimson stood at his window looking out upon the trees and the moon and the shadows they cast upon the garden, and remembered the days of World War I when he was an artillery captain in France.

Out among the poplars he saw again that line of men from the fields, the factories, going forward, and the line of men, wounded men, exhausted men, going back. A panorama of war lay before him on those nights; a panorama also of the years he had spent trying to prevent more war.

Those were long and sleepless nights at the Villa Bessinge. "How heavy," Stimson told a friend, "a simple dove, bearing an olive branch, can weigh upon a man's wrist."

So Dwight D. Eisenhower, who took orders from Secretary of War Stimson during the war that Stimson was not able to prevent, will now look down from his villa at night and see the ghosts of Stimson, Aristide Briand, Woodrow Wilson, walking among the poplar trees, sitting among the shadows cast upon the garden, wondering, hoping, praying that he may succeed where they failed.

Oak Ridge Projects

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—Striking AFL carpenters set up picket lines at all main entrances here today, idling some 2,000 construction workers at four atomic projects.
An Atomic Energy Commission spokesman said the action affected 1,200 men at the Y-12 electro-magnet plant remodeling project, 180 at the K-25 plant and 30 at X-10, Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

Eskimos Like Ice
Cream in Any Weather

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Eskimos like ice cream so much that they spend much of their hard-earned trapping money on frozen goodies produced by southern Alaska firms and flown to such outposts as Circle City, Nome, Teller and Lost River.
"It's never really warm in those northern spots, so ice cream consumption is not as seasonal as in the states," Stewart Durrant, general manager of the Matanuska Valley Farmers Cooperative in Alaska, told a dairymen's convention here.
"Eskimos and others 'way up north eat ice cream any time they can get it, and love it," he said.
There is no surplus problem for Alaska dairymen. Milk is in great demand and from 40 to 60 cents a quart. However, ice cream is the big seller in the cold country, Durrant said.

To get best results in making fresh fruit cobblers, have the fruit mixture piping hot before adding the biscuit topping. For a short cut, use ready-to-bake biscuit topping.

NOTICE

To Customers of Carrier Mills Municipal Waterworks System

We are starting today to paint our elevated water tower, and since it will have to be emptied until it can be cleaned, painted and re-sterilized we will not have the advantage of the reserve pressure usually supplied by the water tower and at times of peak demand services in the higher parts of town and towards the ends of mains may have low pressure or no water unless all users reduce the use of water at these times.

In case of power failure or breakdown at the plant there will be no pressure until pumping can be resumed. We suggest that all customers draw and store a reserve supply against the possibility of power failure or breakdown.

The painting contractor agrees to work around the clock until the tower is back in service to make the time it is out as short as possible.

Please cooperate with this department by using no more water than is absolutely necessary during these three or four days we expect the tower to be out of service.

We also wish to warn motorists to watch about parking cars near the tower in the direction that the wind might carry paint that would damage the finish of the cars.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessor of Brushy township and returned to MAYNARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. On the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the basis for tax extension for 1955 taxes, payable in 1955, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment of officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Holy Land Tour

By Dr. Archie E. Brown
ATHENS, GREECE,
JUNE 30, 1955

At the close of installment number two we had just landed in Athens, Greece. It was about 11:00 p. m. Dr. Taylor, from Carbonate, and Dr. James Baldwin from Salem, met us at the airport. The first thing we had to do after landing was to go through customs. Here our baggage was checked, and we had to declare our possessions, including the amount of money we had with us. The customs authorities were very kind and courteous. In fact we were to find that all the Greeks were of that nature.

We were driven to our hotel and arrived there about midnight. We had rooms reserved for us in the Acropolis Palace hotel. The accommodations here were nice and comfortable. However, they do not compare to hotel and motel accommodations in the United States.

We were told that we could leave any of our possessions, including money, in our rooms without fear of theft. Why? The penalty in Greece for stealing is death. Therefore, no stealing.

Trip to Corinth
We had a most wonderful unexpected experience the day after our arrival, June 30. We had a trip down to the city of Corinth. Here we walked in the footsteps of the Apostle Paul all day today.

Corinth is 56 miles from Athens. It can be reached either by ship or by road. The Apostle Paul went both ways at various times. We travelled right down the road he travelled along about 50 A. D.

We visited the remains of old Corinth. I stood today in the very spot where Paul the Apostle stood when he was on trial before Gallio. Here he was tried for bringing in a new religion into Corinth. If you remember your Bible at this point, you will remember that Gallio ruled in favor of Paul, and threw the case out of court.

The Corinthians then mobbed the Jews who had brought charges against Paul. We walked down the old road that Paul walked down after his acquittal. We saw the old market place where people used to buy meat to sacrifice to their gods.

We ate lunch in Corinth. Be not deceived about the food over here. It is delicious and plentiful. Perhaps this will not be true later. We shall see.

Visit Temples
We went through several temples. We viewed the remains of the Temple of Aphrodite and the temple of Eleusius. We went through the second oldest Greek Orthodox church in the world.

We saw the Gulf of Eleusius, the Gulf of Athens and the Gulf of Corinth. All these are parts of the Aegean Sea.

When we returned to the City of Athens, Paul, Jim and I had a guide to take us up to the famous Acropolis. Here Athenian history was made. I kept my camera hot taking one picture after another.

We looked upon the famous old Parthenon. Most of this architecture has been standing before the time Christ lived on earth. We saw the place where literally hundreds of stone gods had stood.

Mars Hill is in the very shadow of the Acropolis which has many temples and many stone gods. It was on Mars Hill that the Apostle Paul stood and preached that great sermon, part of which is recorded in Acts 17th chapter. I understand it better now. Paul could look right across that ancient road and see all those false gods and idols.

Patron Saint of Athens
It was not difficult for me to close my eyes and hear Paul preach to those learned scholars of another day. As I watched him come down off that hill, in my mind's eye, I turned my face away from Jim, Paul and our guide. I did not want them to see the tears coming down my cheeks.

Oh! what a blessing this day has been. I walked and sat where Plato, Aristotle and Socrates walked and sat. I saw the temples where young virgins offered themselves physically to men as an act of religion. I could hear the great missionary, Paul the Apostle of Jesus Christ, cry out against all such evils.

Such an impression did this mighty man of God make upon Athens that today he is the patron saint of Athens. Yesterday the whole city of Athens celebrated St. Paul's Day. This is an annual event. Thank God for his influence not only upon Athens, but upon the whole world today!

We hurried back to our hotel, checked out, and boarded a bus to the airport. Back through customs we went. We took off for Cairo, Egypt at 9:30 p. m. It is right now 10:35 p. m. and we are flying over the Mediterranean Sea. We shall arrive in Cairo at about 11:45 p. m.

Different World
CAIRO, EGYPT, JULY 1, 1955—It is now 7:00 a. m. It was 2:30 a. m. before I got into the bed here in the Victoria hotel. Our travel agent had arranged for cold drinks and sandwiches. We were glad for this, because we had missed our evening meal in the rush to make our plane in Athens.

We have certainly awakened in a different world this morning. July 2, 6:00 a. m. — We have been on the go ever since I wrote those last words in the above paragraph. Immediately after eating breakfast yesterday, we left by car for a tour of Cairo.

First, we visited the Egyptian Museum. We were told that it is the largest in the world. Here we saw all of the things that were taken out of King Tut's tomb. These date back to about 1600 B. C. We saw mummies of both adults and children. We saw chariots covered with 22 carat gold. We saw the pharaoh's and queen's bed. Many other items, too numerous to mention were observed in the museum. I am trying to get pictures of the most interesting parts of the tour.

We stopped on the banks of the Nile river. Here we were shown the place where it is thought that Pharaoh's daughter found the baby, Moses, in the bulrushes.

We went from there out to visit the ancient pyramids. This was an experience. You ought to see me ride a camel. Boy! it is different from a Texas cow-pony. Hope our pictures of this turn out good.

We were permitted to go inside one of the pyramids near the great Sphinx. There is an interesting legend concerning the Sphinx. There is a granite monument between the toes of the great Sphinx. It is said that one of the Pharaohs of old had this placed there in honor of his god for his unexpected elevation to Pharaoh of Egypt. He was unexpectedly elevated to this high office because his elder brother died the night the death angel passed over Egypt, just prior to the deliverance of the Children of Egypt from Egyptian bondage.

Visit Mohammedan Mosque
In the afternoon yesterday we visited a Mohammedan Mosque and Citadel. We had to let Mohammedan servants place canvas coverings over our feet. Christians cannot walk in their places of worship with their shoes on. The mosque that can be said for this religion is that the buildings are magnificent. We saw the altar that King Faruk had erected in the temple just before he abdicated his throne. We saw the home of his queen. We saw his palace, and we saw the large hotel where he and Chiang Kai-shek, of China, held their war council during World War II.

We are now on our way to Jordan. What strange experiences await us there, we do not know. Be sure that I shall tell you later. As we take our leave of Egypt, I am reminded that this is the land where Moses lived. My eyes have beheld some of the same things that Abraham, Moses, Isaac, Jacob and other Old Testament characters beheld. For instance the pyramids and Sphinx and the hills and seas and Nile River, were all here in those days.

This is the land of sojourn of the children of Israel. God did not want His people down here. I think I know why now.

This is the land where Mary and Joseph and the Baby Jesus came to escape death for the Baby. This land is filled with biblical history. For the next week we shall walk in the footsteps of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and his apostles.

Sea of Red Sea
Just before our plane right now, in plain view, is the beautiful Red Sea. My! what a sight—what memories! Moses and the Children of Israel fled across this desert, and here at this point God performed a great miracle. It was here that God held back the waters of the Red Sea and let the Children of Israel go across dry shod. However, when Pharaoh's army attempted to follow, they were all drowned, because God let His hand go over the walls of water.

Right down there where I am looking right now, it all took place. Now, I am across the Red Sea. Down there below me is where the Children of Israel sang a new song of praise and thanksgiving for their deliverance from Pharaoh. No murmuring from them then. They had nothing but praise for God.

Over to our right is Mt. Sinai. The Sinai Desert surrounds it. Here the Ten Commandments were given to Moses on the two tablets of stone. Right down there where I am looking is the place where the Children of Israel made the golden calves out of their golden rings and bracelets. I can see the Mount Sinai, down from which Moses came and prayed for his people. Remember, his face was so bright and shining from being in God's presence, that he had to veil his face, so that his people could look upon him?

We have just landed at the Jerusalem airport. The first glimpse I had was of old Jerusalem, where Jesus walked. Just across the road is Emmaus. I can see the very spot where Jesus spoke to the two downcast men from Emmaus. Later they said: "Did not our hearts burn within us as He walked and talked with us by the way?"

Jerusalem is seven miles into town. On our way in to our hotel, the Azzahara hotel, we passed by the garden of Gethsemane. My heart leaped within my breast as I

Question Farm Hand in Kidnaping, Murder of Child

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Questioning of Aubrey Brandt, Iowa farm hand who Wednesday admitted in a signed statement that he kidnaped and raped 21-month-old Donna Sue Davis of Sioux City, Iowa, resumed today.

Brandt, who slept so soundly that jailers were unable to arouse him for breakfast, was returned to the same room where he was questioned for 18 hours Wednesday. A third set of fingerprints was made, police said.

Brandt, 20, was known at LaPorte City, Iowa, by the nickname of "Muggey," told of seeing the Davis child on the porch of her home with her mother, and of returning later to take her from the bedroom where she slept. He denied killing the child.

Acting Detective Captain Johnny Showers said Brandt, 42, "admitted any crime we asked him about, so we couldn't be sure of anything."

Iowa police said Brandt has a record of one conviction for sex molestation in 1947 at Cedar Rapids and was fined $100. He was arrested last April 24 at Waterloo, Iowa, for investigation of annoying two small girls in a movie theater, but was released when the investigation showed no molestation.

The ravaged body of the little girl was found late Monday at the edge of a muddy creek near South Sioux City, Neb., just across the Missouri river from Sioux City, Iowa. She was buried Wednesday.

Miss Barbara Thompson Attends National Delta Theta Tau Convention

Miss Barbara Thompson, president of Delta Alpha chapter, left Monday for Fort Wayne, Ind., where she is now attending the national convention of Delta Theta Tau National Sorority, Inc. The meeting began yesterday and will continue through July 16.

Delta Theta Tau, a philanthropic sorority founded in 1903 at Muncie, Ind., has 196 active chapters and 89 alumnae associations throughout the United States. Membership is almost 15,000. At last year's national convention these local chapters spent a total of $112,495.88 for various charities. This year an even greater amount will be reported. Each chapter has its own philanthropy such as aid to hospitals, schools, children's homes and other related projects. The local chapter sponsors the cancer drive annually and this year organized the local Youth Center.

The sorority nationally has also remodeled a 28-bed section, known as the Delta Theta Tau Wing, to the Magnetic Springs Polio Foundation, Magnetic Springs, Ohio. When finally completed this foundation will render service in a rehabilitation program equal to that of the famous Georgia Warm Springs Foundation. Polio patients from any part of the country are accepted.

Twenty-eight years ago the Delta Theta Tau Community school at Brinkley, Ky., was founded by the sorority. Today the third generation of children are attending this school, a model institution for that part of the Kentucky mountains.

Carrier Mills Baptist Group Conducts Veterans Hospital Chapel Service

At the Monday evening chapel service, conducted at the Marion Veterans Administration hospital, singers from the Carrier Mills First Baptist church furnished the special music. The choir was directed by Raymond Allen, with Marlene Johnson accompanist.

Those who sang were: Bess Wiley, Bess McDonald, Mayme Holmes, Alton Partain, Harvey Chaney, Mildred Chaney, Jerrell Chaney, Katherine Matthews, George Hutson, Hallie Hutson, Louise Flannell, Ethel Rouse, Nell Pate, Edna Johnson, Mabel Cates, Cecelia Yacum, and Charlotte O'Keefe. Special quartette, duet and solo numbers were sung by members of the group.

Rev. Ernest Ammon, pastor of the church, delivered the message, and Chaplain Seba E. Marshall gave the benediction.

Monday evening, July 18, at 7:30 singers from the Spring Grove Methodist church, Crab Orchard, will furnish the special music for the chapel service.

Adult visitors are welcome. MacArthur Invited To Testify at Automation Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who last appeared before a cheering Congress in 1951 as a military hero, has been invited to appear again, but this time under less spectacular circumstances.

MacArthur, now board chairman of Sperry Rand Corp., has been invited to testify as a businessman at public hearings next October on the "social and economic implications of automation."

Automation is the term used to describe the growing use of mechanical and electronic equipment in factories and offices to perform jobs which have been done by human hands and brains.

The longest and deepest underwater tunnel in America is the Brooklyn-Battery Tunnel in New York. It is over 1½ miles long and dips 115 feet below the bottom of the harbor.

thought of our Lord's last night up there on that hill. We are now in our hotel room. Jim, Paul and I are all in the same room. It is very nice. We have just eaten a delicious three-course dinner. It is now 2:00 p. m., and we are to start in about thirty minutes for Samaria. Remember, Jesus met the woman at the well there. The next installment will start here.

Convict Woman Urging Youths To Dodge Draft

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (AP)—Mrs. Lucille S. Miller said today her conviction on charges of urging youths to dodge the draft was "fair."

She added it was only her first step in proving peacetime conscientious nonparticipation.

"I had a fair trial and the verdict was just one step toward reaching an adjustment to remedy a serious condition of justice in this nation," the mother of three said.

Mrs. Miller was convicted by a federal jury in U. S. District Court Wednesday.

The chubby, 44-year-old woman was freed in $1,000 bail pending sentencing Aug. 8. Attorneys indicated they will appeal her conviction to the U. S. Court of Appeals in New York City.

She faces a maximum sentence of five years in prison or $10,000 fine, or both, under each of 18 counts in two indictments.

Mrs. Miller admitted during the three-day trial that she sent letters to nine young men urging them to dodge the draft and turn over their draft cards to her. She also admitted sending each a copy of an anti-Communist publication, "The Green Mountain Rifleman," in which she expressed her views.

Mrs. Miller and her husband, Manuel, held off federal marshals at gunpoint last May when the government tried to remove her to a mental hospital. The couple was released from their home during the 12-hour siege.

Castor beans were once grown in southern Illinois for their oil. In fact, the production of castor oil in America was once centered here. Much of it was used for lubricating oil, and thus the kiddies didn't have to take it all. —(SIU)

Engineer Killed, Score Hurt as Train Derails

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—A New Haven Railroad express train hurtled over an embankment here today, killing the engineer and injuring more than a score of passengers.

Twenty-two persons admitted to hospitals were reported in fair or good condition. Several others were treated at the scene.

Nearly all the passengers were sleeping when the wreck occurred at 4:42 a. m., a fact which authorities said prevented a heavier toll.

Seven cars and the engine of the Washington-to-Boston "Federal Express" derailed, some plunging down an embankment onto a city street.

The first four cars were empty, another factor which held down the casualty list. The other derailed cars were a sleeper, a coach and an express car.

Cause of the wreck was not immediately determined. Five hours after the accident the main line between New England

James, Cokes, Dodgers Win Kiwanis Games; Carrier Mills, Ronnie's Tie

By David Nelson
James Bros defeated the Auto Trimmers, 5-1; the Coca Colas trounced the Sahara Tigers, 19-3; the Dodgers edged the Cubs, 15-14; and Carrier Mills and Ronnie's Studio played to a 5-5 tie in Kiwanis league baseball games played Wednesday.

Boyet pitched a no-hitter and allowed only three base runners as James Bros. defeated the Auto Trimmers, 5-1.

James scored one run in the first, and four in the second, on four hits, two errors, three walks and a hit by pitched ball.

The Auto Trimmers scored one run in the first and had runners on one error, one walk and a hit by a pitched ball.

Roberson, Shelton, Cline and Mel-er all had doubles for the winners. Beal was the losing pitcher.

The Cokes scored 13 runs in the first inning and coasted the rest of the game as they trounced the Sahara Tigers, 19-3.

The Cokes scored twice in the second, third and fourth to complete their 19-run total on 12 hits, four errors and nine walks.

Biggs, the winning pitcher, allowed one hit. His teammates made one error and he walked 10 men as the Sahara Tigers scored two in the second and one in the third.

Biggs had three hits, G. Aldridge, Stone, Spurlock and Price, two each, and Yates had one to complete the winners' attack.

Mazzares had the losers' only hit, a long triple. He was the losing pitcher.

The Dodgers scored one run and held the Cubs in the fifth as they edged them, 15-14.

The Dodgers scored one in the first and second, four in the third, eight in the fourth and one in the fifth, on 11 hits, seven errors, three walks and one hit by a pitched ball.

The Cubs tallied four in the first, two in the second, six in the third and two in the fourth on six hits, three errors and 14 walks.

For the winners at bat Griffith had three hits, C. Walleson had two and Bishop, Guiley, Harlow, D. Walleson, Owens and Shanks had one each.

Banks led the losers at bat with a home run and two triples. Stunson and Young had triples and Winters collected a single.

Guiley was the winning pitcher and Gibbons took the loss.

Ronnie's scored four runs in the top of the sixth, as they tied Carrier Mills, 5-5.

Carrier Mills scored one in the second, three in the third and one in the fourth on four hits, three errors and three walks.

Ronnie's scored one in the second and four in the sixth on five hits, one error, three walks and a hit by a pitched ball.

Cowger had a homer and Absher, Allen and Sanders had singles for Carrier Mills.

Hefner had two singles and Cummins, Spurlock and Oze had one each for Ronnie's five safeties.

Indians Acquire Hoot Evers And Ferris Fain

CLEVELAND, Ohio —Outfielder Hoot Evers and first baseman Ferris Fain, two veterans who have seen better days, joined the Cleveland Indians today in separate deals which General Manager Hank Greenberg said "can help us win the pennant."

The Indians, fortifying themselves for the latter half of the pennant race in which they trail the first place New York Yankees by five games, acquired Evers in a waiver deal with last place Baltimore and picked up Fain as a free agent.

In exchange for Evers, the Indians gave Baltimore left-handed pitcher Bill Wight, another fading veteran who has no won and lost record although he has worked in 16 games as a reliever for Cleveland this year.

Evers, should he regain the all-around talent he showed with the Detroit Tigers in 1950, his best year, could be of considerable help to the Indians. Only 34, he has a lifetime batting average of .280 in the majors, but after hitting a peak of .323 with Detroit that year he unaccountably went sour.

Fain, who was dropped by the Detroit Tigers, reportedly because he suffered from both a sore knee and a sore head, was signed as a free agent. He received his unconditional release last week after a series of quarrels involving his successor on the Tigers, first baseman Earl Torgeson and Tiger coach Lynn (Schoolboy) Rowe. Fain re-injured his knee during the winter in a fall and it bothered him badly, particularly in the field where he once had shone as a top defensive first sacker.

However, Fain told Greenberg his knee was sound again.

Fain and Evers join a roster already packed with castoffs from other major league clubs. These include Wertz, ex-Cub Ralph Kiner, ex-Yankee Gene Woodling, ex-Pirate George Strickland, ex-Oriole Bobby Young, ex-Tiger Art Houtteman, and ex-Senator Early Wynn.

Stevenson to Announce Presidential Plans Before End of the Year

CHICAGO — Adlai Stevenson will announce his presidential plans "well before the end of the year."

The 1952 Democratic presidential candidate told this to reporters Wednesday after a private visit with former President Truman, who was attending the Shriners' convention.

Asked if the two leading Democrats talked about victory prospects in 1956, Mr. Truman replied: "There aren't any prospects to talk about. We know what will happen. We will win."

Then in the tenth round Charles landed a punch to Andrews' stomach which sent him doubled up against the ropes, and Sikora held Charles away.

"I thought he was going to fall," Sikora said. "The punch landed right at the belt line."

"If it was low," Charles said, "I didn't know it and I didn't mean it."

Andrews claimed the blow landed "right in the groin," and said he was hurt the rest of the way by pain. Miles and the other handler agreed.

Even though Charles won, he wasn't impressive. Andrews had him in trouble in the first three rounds and Charles got the victory only because he fought from a crouch thereafter, worked inside on the body expertly and kept Andrews confused with his attack shifting occasionally to the head.

Charles, who intended to gain a third match with champion Rocky Marciano by eliminating all the other contenders, will meet Hurricane Tommy Jackson in Syracuse, N. Y. Aug. 2, in his next outing.

Had Andrews won, he would have received the match. It was Andrews' 6th defeat in 35 fights and Charles' 90th win in 194.

Dempsey, Tunney Square Off in Dinner Clothes As Shriners Roar Approval

CHICAGO (UP)— Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney squared off in dinner clothes Wednesday night.

And 58,000 fans roared their approval.

The setting was Soldier Field, and for a moment oldest in the crowd saw history repeated.

Except, of course, that nobody got knocked down.

The occasion was the highlight of the 81st annual Shriners' convention, the spectacular main event of the extravaganza known as "Shrinersama."

The Shriners honored the "Mannassa Mauler" and the "Fighting Marine" for being champions in and out of the ring.

And the former heavyweight champions honored their fans with a colorful display.

Old Pros in All-Star Games IN THE Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)— From first to last it always has been the "old pros" of baseball who wound up as the stars of the All-Star game.

In the first one in 1933 it was Babe Ruth, just a couple of years away from the end of the trail, whose homer won it for the American League, and in the last one, on Tuesday, the payoff was a home run by Stan Musial — who may be just a couple of years away from the end himself.

So it has been down through the years.

Not that the youngsters haven't been able to sparkle. They have, from year to year, done stand-out work. But every time it is the veterans who steal the headlines.

Hubbell Reaps Glory
Take the second game, when a fast young American League team picked up the marbles. Did they get the glory? They did not. It went to one of the losers, a gaffer named Carl Hubbell, who struck out in order five of the American League's greatest hitters.

Walk down through the years and look at the guys who made the game their private testimonial: Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder in 1935 as they combined on a four-hitter; Augie Galan with a homer in 1936; Gomez winning it again in 1937; Johnny Vander Meer scoring in 1938, and Bob Feller saving it in relief in 1939.

Paul Derringer took it for the Nationals in 1940 and in the next one it was Ted Williams with a three-run homer in the ninth with two out and the Americans trailing 4-4. Spud Chandler, another of the old guard, won it in 1942 and Bobby Doerr, no longer a boy wonder, was the big batting gun in 1943.

Phil Cavaretta, who seems to have been around almost as long as the National League, was the 1944 hero as he got on base five times and, when the tilt was resumed in 1946 after a one-year var-time recess, up popped Williams again with two home runs, one off Rip Sewell's blooper ball.

A Pitcher's Year
Come 1947 it was a pitcher's year and who did the most noteworthy firing? The old pros like Hal Newhouser, Harry Brecheen and Warren Spahn. Then, in 1948, it was Vic Raschi, no longer a 20-year-old, and the following year the honors went to aging Virgil (Fire) Trucks.

Red Schoendienst, an old pro even then, wrapped up the 1950 game with a 14th inning home run and the headline hits in the National League's 1951 bombardment went to Musial, Bob Elliott, Gil Hodges and Ralph Kiner.

Two of the veterans, Jackie Robinson and Hank Sauer, slammed homers which won the rain-shortened affair in 1952 and in 1953 the big man was Spahn. Last year, broken finger and all, Al Rosen broke it open with two homers, a single and a walk for five runs batted in.

So it went according to design when Musial, in his 14th year as a big leaguer, broke it up this time. All of which should tend to prove that even the supposedly blase old-timers hustle in this one.

Unknown commercially until the early 1930's, glass fiber is now one of the most versatile manufacturing materials.

Charles Wins Decision But Andrews Claims Low Blow, Faulty Scoring

CHICAGO (UP)— Ezzard Charles still was on the comeback path toward another heavyweight title chance today, but handlers of Paul Andrews charged the advance resulted only from a low blow and faulty scoring by a tight judge.

Charles, the former heavyweight titleholder who has lost three times in an effort to regain the crown, won a majority decision over Andrews in the Chicago Stadium television fight Wednesday night.

But Andrews scored the only knockdown of the brawl, putting Charles on the canvas for the compulsory eight count in the second round. The scoring of the judges for this episode varied widely.

Referee Frank Sikora gave Andrews the round by a 10-7 score, Judge Frank McAdam made it 10-6 for Andrews, and Judge James McManus 10-8. McManus scored the fight 96-95 for Charles while Sikora had it 94-91 for the champion and McAdam 95-89 for Andrews.

"If McManus had scored the round 10-7, the fight would have been a draw," Andrews' manager Marshall Miles, the former manager of ex-champion Joe Louis, said.

Dempsey, resplendent in blue trousers and white jacket, came off his stool as the gong rang in a replica of the ring where he and Tunney fought their famous "long-count" fight in 1927.

He went into the crouch that once brought fear into the hearts of his opponents and looked like he was in as good shape as ever.

Tunney, wearing a black dinner jacket and black trousers, skipped lightly toward Dempsey, his left hand ready to throw the jab that guided him to a boxing career marred only by a single defeat to Harry Greb.

The two champs sparred — at a good distance from each other. Then the band broke into "The Missouri Waltz" in honor of former President Truman, who attended the event, and they embraced each other and waltzed around the ring.

The crowd roared with delight. Many of the fans remembered the night of Sept. 22, 1927, when Dempsey felled Tunney, the champion, in the seventh round of their two million dollar fight and stayed there while the count was delayed.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessors of Independence, township, and returned to MAYNARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1955 taxes, payable in 1956, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment of officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Brownell Says Congress is Usurping Power

By United Press
Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. accused Congress today of trying to "usurp power" belonging to President Eisenhower.

Congress committed the alleged constitutional breach, Brownell said, in a provision attached to the $31,882,815,726 defense appropriation bill signed by Mr. Eisenhower Wednesday.

The President himself charged in signing the measure that Congress had "no right" to do what it did. He indicated he will not be bound by what he considers invalid provisions.

Today the White House released a legal opinion in which Brownell accused Congress of trying "to usurp power, confided to the executive branch."

The provision to which he objected would give either the Senate or House Appropriations Committee veto power over closing military-operated plants which compete with private industry.

Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes (D-Fla.) had accused President Eisenhower of attempting veto by paragraph. "It is unbelievable that he places himself above the law," Sikes said. "This is not a military government. We are not under martial law."

Brownell argued that "to acquiesce in legislation encroaching upon the executive authority would result in the establishment of dangerous precedents." He added that the allegedly invalid provisions did not invalidate the entire bill.

Planes, Craft to Cover Eisenhower Route to Geneva

WASHINGTON (AP)—If President Eisenhower's plane should be forced down in the Atlantic en route to the Big Four conference, air rescue squads will be close at hand.

The White House announced Wednesday that the President's overseas route will be covered by 50 rescue planes and Navy surface craft.

Mr. Eisenhower's regular White House plane, the Columbine III, also carries normal "ditching" equipment of air rafts and life preservers.

The White House said Mr. Eisenhower's northern route via Iceland would be covered from the air by B29s and SA16s, which are "normally" used in any presidential over water flight.

The planes will patrol specific sectors of the North Atlantic as will Navy surface craft, including the weather ship on routine assignment, plus six extra vessels on special assignment.

If the weather is bad, the President will travel a southern route via the Azores.

Legion Hits Foreign Court Trials for American Soldiers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Legion called upon Congress today to repeal immediately treaties permitting foreign countries to jail American servicemen overseas.

Bruce P. Henderson, chairman of the Legion's National Security Commission, said "never before in our history have American soldiers been turned over to foreign courts for trial and thus denied the protection of the Constitution."

In testimony prepared for the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Henderson said the treaties "should be repealed without delay."

The committee is investigating the effects of the so-called status of forces treaties under which U. S. troops stationed abroad are subject to foreign laws and courts for crimes committed while on duty. The treaties include North Atlantic Treaty nations and six others.

Henderson said "the American soldier is in the uniform of his country to protect the very rights which he is being denied under the status of forces agreement."

Rep. Frank T. Bow (R-Ohio) and a dozen other House members are pressing for legislation to direct the President to seek revision of the treaties or to withdraw from them entirely.

The administration, however, claims servicemen are getting lighter sentences from foreign courts than they would if tried by U. S. court martial.

Both Front Tires Of Carpentier's Auto Blow Out

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—First one and then the other front tire on Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier's state limousine blew out Wednesday within a 27-mile stretch of highway.

"I was lucky," Carpentier said. "I've always been lucky in these accidents."

The car was traveling about 65 miles per hour when each blow-out occurred.

Gov. William G. Stratton had been a passenger in the same car, on the same tires, only the day before when Carpentier took a party of four to the All-Star baseball game at Milwaukee.

The right front tire blew out on U. S. 66 near Pontiac. The left tire went about 1½ miles from El Paso on Ill. 24.

The car skidded when the first tire blew, Carpentier said, and he didn't know if his driver, Bernard Kruebe, was going to be able to keep the car on the road.

The second blowout left the car with only three tires, and it had to be towed into El Paso. The delay made the secretary an hour late for a speech at Canton.

Last year, a front wheel assembly on the same car collapsed in Moline.

American Motors Rejects Union Wage Proposal

DETROIT (AP)—American Motors said today it has rejected a union proposal to reach a new agreement based on the pattern set between the union and Ford and General Motors.

Edward Cushman, vice president and top negotiator for the Nash-Hudson combine, said the offer was rejected because it still would leave American Motors with higher wage costs than the major automobile producers.

Cushman said Leonard Woodcock, top union negotiator in the American Motors talks, indicated the union perhaps felt some higher benefits from smaller companies.

They were justified since the larger companies often provided more hours of work during the period of a year than the smaller companies.

He said American Motors has been paying 10 cents an hour more for assemblies than two of its competitors and 8 cents more than a third. He said some pension provisions, snack time provisions, wash up time provisions and other costs at American Motors have been higher than at other companies.

Rescue Man Buried 25 Minutes

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—Robert Churnovic, 29, was buried for 25 minutes Wednesday when the sides of an 18-foot ditch he was standing in collapsed.

Rescuers, digging with their hands, saved him after his father, Nicholas, saw the accident and ran for help.

The rescuers dug with their hands to prevent possible injury to the buried man from shovels. Policemen, firemen and neighbors helped pull Churnovic out.

Churnovic, whose head was four feet below ground level, was given oxygen as the rest of the dirt around him was shoveled away.

He was taken to St. Joseph hospital and treated for shock and possible fractured ribs.

Personal Income Up During May

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Commerce Department reports that personal income in May reached an annual rate of 301 billion dollars, an increase of about two billion over April.

The department's office of business economics said this was the first time personal income had exceeded the 300 billion dollar level.

Senate Approves Satellite Resolution, 80-0

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today approved 80-0 a resolution expressing hope that satellite countries throughout the world may soon be free to choose their own governments.

The resolution is one of two proposals designed to strengthen President Eisenhower's hand at the Big Four conference. Debate followed immediately on the second resolution, which follows the same general line. The second urges that U. S. foreign policy be aimed at helping all enslaved people gain independence.

Both proposals were approved 14-0 Wednesday by the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

In approving the two proposals, the committee slapped down Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) for the second time in two weeks by voting 13-0 to table—and thus bottle up—his resolution calling on the U. S. to break off diplomatic relations with Soviet satellite nations in Europe.

Polio Cases Below Period Last Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Public Health Service said today the number of new polio cases reported last week was well below those reported in the corresponding weeks of the past three years.

It said that 406 new cases were reported, compared with 766 cases reported in the corresponding week of 1954. However, the new cases represented a 22 per cent jump over the 334 reported in the previous week.

It said 4,117 cases were reported this year, compared with 5,464 in the similar period last year.

Construct Bridge Over Creek On Gravel Road to Ridgway

A new bridge is being constructed over North Fork creek on the gravel road that leads to Ridgway from Route 142 about three miles southeast of Eldorado.

The road is a Gallatin county federal aid route and the bridge, to be built at a cost of approximately $150,000, will be constructed by the J. D. Barter Construction Co. of Harrisburg and the E. T. Simonds Construction Co. of Carbondale.

The old bridge, known as the Ashley bridge, already has been torn down and the road closed at the point. Construction of the new 300-foot span structure is under way with workers now in the process of pouring footings.

Completion of the bridge is expected around Oct. 1.

31,000 Pounds of Frozen Chicken Sink in Wabash

ROBINSON (AP)—The makings of a lot of chicken dinners went into the Wabash River when a ferry sank with a semi-trailer truck Wednesday.

State police said 31,000 pounds of frozen chickens were in the truck driven by James Reed of Gainesville, Ga. The cargo of chickens was enroute to Chicago and valued at $15,000.

Reed said he was trying to get over to U. S. 41 when he drove to the ferry 10 miles northeast of Robinson.

The ferry is owned by Walter Cooper and runs between Illinois and Merom, Ind. It had been back in service only four days after being idle for two years.

The ferry was designed for a load limit of 13 tons and Ben Riggs, who was in charge, said Reed told him his truck weighed between 11 and 12 tons.

Three Burn to Death in Crash

CLINTON, Ill. (AP)—A head-on collision between an automobile and a truck cab pulling a house trailer killed three persons Wednesday and seriously injured a fourth.

The accident occurred on Ill. 54 between Farmer City and Parnell. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kaufman, Decatur, who were riding in the car, and J. E. Wilkins, 46, Sand Springs, Okla., driver of the truck, burned to death when their vehicles burst into flame after the crash.

Bruce Barstadt, 35, Chicago, a passenger in the truck, was injured.

State police said the accident occurred when the Kaufman car blew a tire, went out of control and crashed head-on into the truck.

Typhoon Moving Toward Japan, Korea

TOKYO (AP)—Typhoon Clara moved toward Japan and Korea today with threats of 138-mile-per-hour winds.

The tropical storm, biggest of the season, was located by U. S. Air Force weather reconnaissance planes 345 miles southwest of the southern tip of Kyushu early this morning.

Clara's path was headed directly toward Korea, but forecasters warned it might swing east as it nears the Asian mainland and strikes Japan.

Rites at Ridgway

Funeral services for Melton Smith, Ridgway resident who died Tuesday evening in the Pearce hospital in Eldorado, were held today at 2 p. m. at the Cox funeral home in Ridgway. Rev. L. C. Irby, pastor of the Ridgway Baptist church, officiated and burial was in the Dana cemetery in Gallatin county.

All the primary kaolin produced in the United States comes from North Carolina. It is a ceramic used in fine china.

C. L. Travis to Retire at NYC Friday; Will Move to New Home at Colorado Springs

CLOSING THE BOOKS—C. L. Travis, yardmaster for the New York Central Lines at Harrisburg, is shown winding up his work this week in his office preparatory to his retirement Friday after 50 years and four and a half months a railroad.

C. L. Travis, a railroadman for more than 50 years, will retire tomorrow and soon he and Mrs. Travis will move into a brand new house they had built for their retirement at Colorado Springs, Colo.

The house, in the area where you can look up and see Pike's Peak anytime, is ready for them right now. Mrs. Travis has relatives at Colorado Springs and while vacationing there last year, they made arrangements to have a house built according to their specifications. Their address there, after a few weeks, will be 2517 Lark drive in Colorado Springs.

Mr. Travis, who came to Harrisburg as yardmaster for the New York Central in 1939, has been with this company for 45 years.

He was born in Marion, Ky., and started out as a brakeman with the Illinois Central at the age of 19. He then worked as a brakeman for the Missouri Pacific in St. Louis about two months and as a terminal switchman there six or eight months. Next he worked for the Cotton Belt Lines at Illinois, Mo.

Mr. Travis went to work for the New York Central March 1, 1910, at Cairo, working as a switchman until 1935, when he was made yardmaster.

He came here in October of 1939 and has been yardmaster all of that period, except when he was loaned by the NYC to serve as trainmaster for Sherwin-Williams at the Crab Orchard lake ordnance plant during World War II.

It was while he was at Cairo that he and Mrs. Travis were married. She was Miss Eva Carr, a bookkeeper in a furniture store, before their marriage.

Active in Methodist Church
Mr. and Mrs. Travis will leave Saturday to visit relatives in Nashville, Tenn., Mattoon, Ill., and Minneapolis. Then they will go to their new home some time in August.

Both stated this week that they have enjoyed their life in Harrisburg very much. Both have been active in the Methodist church and in lodge work. Mrs. Travis has been a choir member for 42 years but states that from here on she plans to sit with Mr. Travis back in the church congregation.

"He has sat by himself long enough," she stated.

Surname Usage
Surnames, in modern times, first were used in France, particularly Normandy, where they can be traced to the latter part of the 10th century. They were introduced in England by the Normans after the Conquest. The Jews were the last to adopt surnames.

New York City is built on three islands: Manhattan, Staten, and Long.

Dining Hall a Busy Place at Beulah Campground Youth Institute

The Beulah Camp Ground, site of the annual Beulah Camp Youth Institute, is a busy place this week with almost 1,300 persons registered for the week-long religious training program. In addition another 1,000 or more people come in for the night evangelistic services.

Wednesday morning it was stated by the camp registrar that 1,275 had registered and of this number 1,200 were eating in the huge dining hall on the grounds. Most of the cabins are equipped with cooking facilities, but only a few of the campers have elected to cook.

A look through the dining hall and a check of the menu, plus the reasonable cost of the meals, and it is easy to understand why practically everyone prefers to eat at the general dining room.

Wednesday's menu, representative of the meals served during the week, included pork links, scrambled eggs, prunes, donuts, milk and coffee, breakfast; fried chicken, gravy, mashed potatoes, combination salad, green peas, chocolate cake, fruit cocktail, iced tea and coffee, noon; beef stew, black eyed peas, lettuce and mango slices, cherry cobbler and tea and coffee, evening.

Mrs. Evelyn Souder, wife of Rev. Souder, pastor of the Centralia Methodist church, is head of the kitchen and dining room. She has three cooks and six helpers preparing the food, plus three men in the dish washing room and thirty volunteer helpers for dining room duty at each meal.

Mrs. Souder revealed that 175 pounds of pork links, 72 dozen eggs, 2,400 donuts and an unknown amount of jelly and coffee were consumed at breakfast Wednesday. Each diner also gets a half-pint bottle of milk at breakfast.

To provide for the noon meal 175 chickens were prepared and looked delicious in the deep fat fryers. It was necessary to peel and cook 350 pounds of potatoes and 10 gallons of gravy were made. To make the combination salad 100 pounds of cabbage, a bushel of peppers and another bushel of tomatoes, plus many stalks of celery were used. Thirty-five gallons of green peas were cooked. Seventeen large sheet cakes and thirty gallons of fruit cocktail were served for dessert.

The beef stew served last night contained 120 pounds of beef, 200 pounds of potatoes, 50 pounds of onions, 30 gallons of tomatoes and a basket of carrots. A couple of large baskets of lettuce and mangoes were sliced and served, 35 gallons of black-eyed peas prepared and 35 gallons of cherries were used in making the cobbler.

All foods are purchased locally, either in Eldorado or Harrisburg.

The dining hall operates five and a half days of the institute and a meal ticket for the entire time is available for only $6.

The dining hall has three wings for the tables and the kitchen occupies the west end of the building. Cooking is done on gas stoves.

Approximately 750 may be seated in the dining hall at a time and it takes about an hour and a half to complete serving one meal cafeteria style. The kitchen workers start their day at 5 o'clock in the morning.

In addition to all this food consumed at the dining hall, the campers also give the canteen a big business.

Figures were available for Tuesday's business and it was stated

Indianapolis School Executive Named New Kiwanis International President

Jackson A. Raney, Indianapolis school executive, has been named president of Kiwanis International. He was elected to the number-one Kiwanis post Wednesday, June 29, by delegates attending the 40th annual convention of Kiwanis International at Cleveland, Ohio. News of Raney's election was received by officers of the Kiwanis club of Harrisburg today.

As head of Kiwanis International, Raney will be official spokesman for almost a quarter million Kiwanians in 4062 clubs located throughout the United States and Canada, and in Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands. He succeeds Don E. Engdahl, Spokane, Wash., lumberman who has held the post since August of 1954.

Raney has devoted most of his professional life to the education of the physically handicapped. He has been superintendent of the Indiana State School for the Deaf at Indianapolis for 20 years. He is a graduate of Franklin college and a member of its council. Recently, he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from that institution.

Kiwanis' President-elect has been an active Kiwanian for 19 years. Immediately prior to his selection for the number-one Kiwanis post, he was vice-president of the organization. He also chairmanned the International convention Program committee for this year, and for 1954. He has served as president of his own Indianapolis Kiwanis club, lieutenant governor and governor of the Indiana Kiwanis District and chairman of the International committee on Boys and Girls Work. His work in the field of boys and girls has been instrumental in bringing increased public attention to the various Kiwanis programs devoted to the welfare of the youth

Cops Average Out to 1.46 Per 1000 Persons

CHICAGO — — Cities with population of more than 10,000 average 1.46 policemen for each 1,000 persons, according to the International City Managers' Association. The association said the number of policemen for each 1,000 population ranges from 1.39 in cities of 10,000 to 25,000 population, to 2.38 for cities over 500,000.

4,000 bottles of pop, 900 bags of peanuts, 500 bags of potato chips, 1,200 candy bars and 1,500 ice cream products were sold. During the busy hours seven are employed in the canteen.

This year's registration is a record breaker, the camp director has declared and all phases of the camp are operating without a hitch.

The hundreds of young people and their counselors are enjoying a week of fine Christian fellowship.

Jackson A. Raney

of the United States and Canada.

Delegates to the Cleveland convention, Kiwanis' 40th, numbered more than 13,000, to make the convention one of the organization's largest.

In addition to naming Raney their president, the delegates also chose two vice-presidents, a treasurer and six international trustees. They are: Harold John Fraser, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, and W. Donald Dubail, St. Louis, Mo., vice-presidents; Reed C. Culp, Salt Lake City, Utah, treasurer; Luman W. Holman, Jacksonville, Texas, Walter F. Patenge, Lansing, Mich., Everett F. Penshorn, Jamaica Plain, Mass., Simon H. Reynolds, Rochester, N. Y., Merle H. Tucker, Gallup, N. M., and Albert J. Tully, Mobile, Ala., trustees.

SHE BUYS COMPLIMENTS BY THE CAN

Like Mark Twain, most folks "can live a month on a good compliment." Smart women know that nothing brings heart-warming compliments like home-made cakes that are higher and lighter . . . pies that have flakier, more tender crusts . . . fried foods that are crisper and more fry-geetible. They love using pure vegetable Mrs. Tucker's because it's the FINEST shortening money can buy, and because of the do-it-yourself personal satisfaction it brings them. So when you want compliments, get 'em by the can. Get Mrs. Tucker's Pure White Shortening!

Keeping a dark summer cotton dress free from lint is easier if it's washed alone or with other dark colorfast items. To prevent starch from streaking cottons, make sure the starch is well mixed, free from lumps and is darkened a little with bluing. It's best to iron dark cotton on the wrong side and use a pressing cloth for touchups on the right side.

Rourke studied the big redhead alertly. "First time I ever knew you to toss in a hand before the showdown."
"First time you ever saw me holding such a lousy hand. Let's go see Gentry."

"I'm ashamed of you, Michael Shayne," exclaimed Lucy with red cheeks showing in tear-stained cheeks. "Tim's perfectly right. A hundred things might happen."
"What, for instance?" demanded Shayne harshly.

"Lucy's right," Rourke surged to his feet. "We've still got 50 minutes. And something may happen to upset whatever plans he had made for the Allerdice woman. I'm going to phone in and see if there's any dope."

Shayne lit a cigaret and leaned back moodily while Rourke called his paper. He said, "Hi, Ed." Any news yet on the driver of the car that went off the Causeway?"

He listened a moment, and Shayne knew by his expression that there was no good news. Then the reporter stiffened abruptly and exclaimed, "What? Say that again, Ed."

He listened intently, his brow furrowed, thin face hardening perceptibly. He nodded after a long interval of silence, said emphatically, "I'm interested, Ed. In anything that comes up on any of this, I'll be at the same phone or you can get a message to me from here."

He quietly replaced the receiver and looked down at it for a moment, then turned with a soberly preoccupied expression to announce, "You didn't stay there long enough, Mike. Should have waited until they opened the luggage compartment of the gray sedan."

Shayne asked just as quietly, "Why, Tim?"

"Because there was a woman locked in there. Tied up with ropes. Dead, of course, when they took her out. The brief description coincides with the one I saw in the tourist cabin, Mike. And they found a motel key in her pocket."

"Mrs. Allerdice!" exclaimed Shayne. "He had her tied up in the trunk while he tried to collect the money instead of hiding her out as a hostage until he did get it."

"That's what it sounds like. He must have been awfully sure you were going to follow instructions. His threats about her talking to the police were pure bluff."

"And she won't do any talking now," said Shayne quietly.

"How ghastly for her," gasped Lucy Hamilton. "Imagine being locked up in the trunk of a car when it went off into the bay. Drowning there without a chance."

Shayne nodded soberly. "One more death tonight chalked up against Michael Shayne. If I hadn't tried to be smart and capture the man, she'd still be alive."

"But it wasn't your fault, Michael," Lucy rushed to his defense. "You had no way of knowing things would go wrong. I have no reason to suspect he had her in his car."

"That's no excuse," he countered fiercely. "Sure. You can say the same thing about everything that's happened tonight. Poor old, dumb Mike Shayne! He's not to blame. In his own blundering way, he done his best."

The self-contempt in his voice was withering. "In the meantime, people are dying right and left . . . all because I covered up for you in the beginning."

Lucy leaned back and began to weep silently, tears cascading down her cheeks in twin streams.

Shayne glared at her for a moment, then said brusquely, "All right. Recriminations aren't any good now." To Rourke, he said, "So, where does that leave us?"

"We don't have to worry about a one o'clock deadline any more."

Shayne got up to pace heavily back and forth across the room. "They'll go to the motel and discover she and I are registered as Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Homestead."

"How'll they know it was you? Thus far, there's nothing at all to connect you with the gray sedan or with her."

"They'll get my license number."

"But that won't be before tomorrow morning, Mike," Rourke's voice was harsh with urgency. "You've got that much time."

"For what?"

"For finding out what cooks. For solving three murders?"

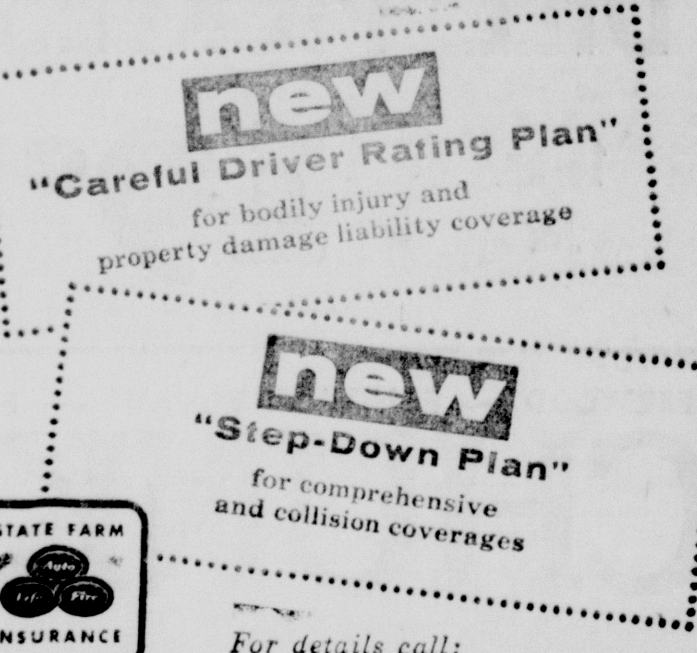

"Three?" Shayne stopped to regard him oddly. "I can only think of two that need solving."

"There's the girl who was strangled, Jack Bristow. And now Mrs. Allerdice . . . if that's her name."

Shayne shook his head angrily.
